

Book Activities

Identify a core democratic value from this story. Explain why you chose this CDV and what part of the story demonstrated this.

Create a character map for one of the characters in the story. Include at least 3 character traits. Write the event from the story that shows the character trait.

Use a Venn Diagram to show how this book is like another book that you have read and how it is different. Use Ideashaper on Compass Learning to create a final copy.

Make a model of the setting of the story. Include the important places from the story.

Make a timeline of the important events in the story. Put the events in order from beginning to end.

Draw and color a new book cover for the book. Include an important scene from the story. Write the title and the author's name.

Write an interview for the main character of the book. Ask at least 5 questions. Write the answers to the questions. Present the interview to the class with the help of a friend.

Write a poem about the story you read.

Write a test for the book. Include 10 questions. Create an answer key for your questions.

Book Activities

Identify 2 core democratic values in this story. Explain why you chose these CDV's and what parts of the story demonstrated them.

Create a character map for one of the characters in the story. Include at least 3 character traits. Write the event from the story that shows the character trait. Use Ideashaper on Compass Learning to create a final copy.

Use a Venn Diagram to show how the main character and you are alike and how you are different. Use Ideashaper on Compass Learning to create a final copy.

Write a play for an important scene in the story. Use the words in the book to create speaking parts for the characters. Create props and costumes. Perform your play with a group of people for the class.

Rewrite the ending of the story. Make it completely different from the real ending, but make sure the new ending makes sense with the rest of the story.

Write a letter to one of the characters in the story. Tell that character if you agree or disagree with how he or she solved the problem in the story. Tell how you would have solved the problem.

Draw a picture of an important event in the story that shows something that the character learned. Under the picture explain what the character learned in the story.

Create a song about the book. Try to make it rhyme. Perform the song in front of the class.

Draw and color a new book cover for the book. Include an important scene from the story. Write the title and the author's name. On the back of the cover, write a summary of the book explaining what the book is about.